SHOT HIM THREE TIMES.

An Alleged Burglar Tries to Escape and Is Riddled.

Joe Moemoe, a member of the Government band, lies on a cot at the reef with three bullet wounds, two in the left leg and one in the right. He was shot on Saturday night about 9:30 o'clock by two policemen, who resorted to their revolvers in order to prevent him from escaping.

According to the story told by the police, Moemoe and another Manila man named Masymo, entered a house near Smith's Bridge with the intention of robbing it, but before they could do so the place was surrounded by the police. Both men heard the officers coming and tried to escape. At a command Masymo halted, but Moemoe kept on running. One officer, Dick Kekona by name, fired one shot, which took effect, and then Joe Puni, another officer, emptied three chambers of his revolver, two bullets entering the man's leg. He was then captured, and, along with his companion, was taken to jail.

Captain Larsen was seen about the affair yesterday, and he stated that of late robberies had been very frequent in the vicinity of Smith's Bridge. The thieves worked on Saturday and Sunday nights, when people were absent from home, and took only money. He had received word that Moemoe and Masymo were responsible for the robberies, and a watch was kept on the movements of the two men. On Saturday they were seen, with a third man, to enter the house where the shooting occurred and remain but a few moments. They then came up town as far as the merry-go-round, and about nine o'clock they left for the house again, but without the third man. They entered the place and were inside about ten minutes when Larsen gave orders for the men under him to guard the rear while he entered from the front. In the meantime the two men ran out and one was shot as above stated. The house was examined later and it was found that a bureau drawer had been ransacked, and in addition a large file was found inserted beneath the lid of a trunk, as if some one had intended to force the receptacle open. Captain Larsen considers the two men as dangerous and says that the police were justified in the shooting.

Moemoe was seen at the prison yesterday. He denies that he entered the house for the purpose of robbery. He says that he and his companion visited the place to see some women, but upon entering they found that no one was home. When they were leaving they heard cries of "haul in" and he ran away because he did not want to get in any trouble, as he expressed it. According to his story the police did not give him any warning and he was about twenty feet away when the shots were fired. He is not injured seriously as the bullets did not fracture any bones.

ALDRICH IN HARD LUCK.

He Wants to Get Away But His Many Friends Object.

William Aldrich is determined to leave town, and his creditors are equally determined that he shall not leave these sunny shores. William has given up all hope of getting away on a steamer, so he thought he would try his hand at sailing vessels, and some days ago he approached Captain Jameson, of the brig L'Avvenier, who consented to take him as far as San Francisco. Aldrich was pleased with the captain's answer, and waited patiently for the hour when the vessel would let go her lines and depart. While he was congratulating himself, he was in blissful ignorance of the fact that the Captain had informed several people that he was to have a passenger, and finally Officer Patterson heard that Aldrich was the man. The officer boarded the vessel on Saturday afternoon, and after a search he found his man in the lazarette. William was promptly put ashore, and is once more mingling with his friends.

The board of officers of the American Union Party met on Saturday evening, and passed resolutions to the effect that it was the sense of the meeting that the qualifications of voters for Senators should be $600, instead of $900. MAUI, June 8.—During the early hours of Wednesday, June 6th, the steamer Claudine came into Maui's seaport with nearly a full complement of cabin passengers composed mainly of attendants at the Waite Circuit Court for the June term. Among the faces recognized were those of Judge Cooper, Deputy Attorney-General Wilder, Lawyers Kinney, Magoon, V. V. Ashford, Antonio Rosa, Achi, W. H. Halstead and the "Quaker-delegate" J. W. Kalua. Delegate W. F. Pogue was also among the arrivals, being summoned as a witness.

During the same morning, at Wailuku Court House, the native jurors appeared before Judge Kepoikai at 9:30 o'clock, and a calendar numbering in the vicinity of fifty cases was inspected and revised. No affair of great moment or interest has as yet been tried. It is reported that there was a verdict of acquittal rendered in a local pig stealing case. The Ayers vs. Mahuka breach-of-promise case will probably come up on Saturday, and today will be consumed in the trying of ex-deputy Tax Collector J. P. Sylva, of Hana, for embezzlement of Government funds. Judge Cooper was requested by the Chief Justice to act in the matter as Judge Kepoikai was disqualified owing to relationship.

W. H. Halstead is acting as interpreter, or "in crupter," as he call it. The foreign jurors are called for Saturday, the 9th instant.

On Saturday, the 2d inst., the Makawao baseball nine defeated the Kula team by a score of 15 to 12. Weather:—The story of dust and heat continued.

HILO, HAWAII, June 7th.—Decorations Day was observed here by a number of school children, headed by Rev. Mr. Hill, who placed flowers upon the three graves in the foreign cemetery of the soldiers who fought for the principles involved in the Civil War. The evening of June 3d, at the First Foreign Church, Mr. Hill gave a stirring and patriotic address. At the close the congregation and choir sang America with a hearty good will.

Lillian, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lyman, passed away Tuesday afternoon after a lingering illness of over a year.

The sugar crop for the Hilo district this year promises to be a large one, probably over one fifth of the entire production of the Hawaiian islands. The following tonnage is expected from each of the Hilo plantations: Waialeale Mill Co., 6000 tons; Hilo Sugar Co., 8000 tons; Onomea Sugar Co., 8000 tons; Pepeekeo Sugar Co., 5500 tons; Honouliuli Sugar Co., 2600 tons; Hakalan Sugar Co., 2500 tons; Laupahoehoe Sugar Co. (new), nothing, a total of 36,000 tons. Waialeale Mill Co., Hilo Sugar Co.

and Hakalan Sugar Co. ship their product direct to California; the rest of the sugar goes there via Honolulu.

The plantations are suffering from the unusual dry spell. For May we had only 2 65 100 inches; at Papaikou it was a little better, 3 4-100 inches.

Hilo town has sufficient water for her present needs, but if the drought lasts much longer we will have to go on half rations as we have in past dry seasons. There is a large spring near our present source of supply of water that for a very little money could be utilized and water famine in Hilo would be a thing of the past.

The following notice is posted on the bulletin-boards in town: "A reward of $100 for the identification, arrest and conviction of the three parties who, it is said, tried to abduct Miss Mary Rose on the evening of June 5th. Signed, SHERIFF, E. H. WILLIAMS."

Hilo people are considerably excited over the story told by Miss Mary Rose to wit: that on the evening of the 5th when she was about to retire, and wishing a glass of water she went into the kitchen to get it, when a man grabbed hold of her, putting his hand over her mouth. She made an outcry, but nothing daunted the fellow picked her up and carried her over the fence into a vacant lot where he was joined by two confederates, who after a consultation, chloroformed her, only partially succeeding. Her parents found her there in a state of hysterics a short time after.

Mr. F. D. Baldwin, who is surveying close to Kilauea, has his camp invaded by a bevy of young ladies from Hilo who "are having a delightful time in spite of occasional blasts in front of the house which necessitate one's flying under the bed for refuge."

A very pleasant evening was spent with the Hilo Social Club at the residence of C. E. Richardson the 3rd ult. The Misses Mary and Hattie Hitchcock had charge of the programme which was devoted to Long-flow. Much credit is due the Misses Hitchcock for the excellent programme. Praise also should not be stinted on the ladies and gentlemen who participated in the entertaining of the guests so well. The programme was as follows:

Then followed a series of tableaux from the Courtship of Miles Standish, the characters impersonated by the following named:

KOHALA, June 7.—The Ministry's draft of the new Constitution has been read here with great interest—thanks to the enterprise of the ADVERTISER. The men who wander about in the semi-darkness of the other newspaper luminaries have spent the last two or three days borrowing of our oil, and the draft has been pretty generally read. The first thing that strikes the reader is its extraordinary length. It is to be hoped that the final document will not be nearly so voluminous. No such document could be expected to please everyone in every regard. But, on the whole, it is received favorably in Kohala as a good and exhaustive basis for the Convention to work on.

The enterprise of the Post Office authorities in promptly sending out the foreign mail is very gratifying to the people here. It was landed at Mahukona by the Waialeale, and reached us on the evening of Wednesday.

The interest in the work of the Convention is rather eclipsed by our interest in the weather. The long drought has almost, if not quite, stopped the work of planting, and the anxious eyes that look after our landed interests are turned heavenward. There has been a good deal of rain in the hills, but not till the last few hours has there been any definite promise of rain on the lowlands. On this Thursday night there are already some light sprinkles of rain, with a fair promise of showers. Strong trades have been blowing lately and the dust has become a nuisance.

June 11th will be observed here in a quiet way as a general holiday by everyone. We are all going on picnics, and expect to have a good time.

The new Music Hall was opened by a grand public ball on the evening of May 20th. From various causes the attendance was not as large as usual on such occasions. But the evening was in every way a success, and the fete reflects credit on those in charge of it.

The Seminary held its closing exercises today and they were well attended by the public. The teachers in that institution leave in a few days on their well-earned vacation. Miss Garnett leaves permanently to return to her home on Maui.

There is some talk of a Fourth of July celebration here. Just what form it will take has not been definitely decided.

It is understood that the Inter-Island Steamship Company has perfected arrangements to call regularly hereafter at Niihau. This would place our mail service on a more satisfactory footing than it has ever heretofore been, and it is to be hoped that the rumor has a substantial foundation.
